Profile

In today's business environment, intellectual property ("IP") is the key to the future and fundamental basis for success in China and, of course, also around the world. So foreign enterprises must attach a great importance to the acquisition and protection of their IP when doing business in China and assure that their product or service entry into Chinese market is not attacked with IP infringements.

In order to provide specialized one-stop IP services to our clients, apart from China Sunbow Law Firm, we have further established and maintained an IP agent company - China Sunbow & Associates Limited duly incorporated in both mainland China and Hong Kong, which has further housed trademark and patent attorneys, and through which we represent worldwide clients to file any type of trademark, patent, design and copyright applications in both mainland China and Hong Kong. Thanks for our clients' long-lasting confidence and supports from 2004 and our highly noted expertise and outstanding representation, our IP Practice is on its way to becoming the market leader in China in its field. In addition, we have also developed and maintained an extensive and high-quality cooperative network with several hundreds of international law firms and IP firms in more than 60 countries and regions. With the aid of such extensive resources, apart from practice in China and Hong Kong, we can further assist our clients in applying and registering various trademarks, patents, designs and copyrights and manage their trademark and patent portfolios worldwide. What makes our IP practice different from other pure IP agent companies is that our trademark and patent attorneys routinely work closely with our attorneys-at-law in the same firm, who often share and contribute their expertise and opinions to each other for same clients, and our experienced litigators always stand ready to enforce our clients' IP or defend them from IP attacks, therefore, our clients can rely on the strength of our comprehensive sound legal counsel and representation in all aspects of developing and protecting the value of their IP portfolios. So, in this sense, our clients benefit from our capability to provide both the focused IP services of a boutique and the multi-disciplinary corporate services as a full-service law firm in China.

Our firm's seasoned trademark and patent attorneys in the IP Practice which is our firm's most traditional and strongest business have accumulated substantive experience in confidently handling any type of trademark and patent related legal matters. Our IP attorneys have already represented many companies and individuals from more than 60 countries and regions to have successfully applied, registered and enforced various trademarks, patents and designs worldwide, particularly, in China and Hong Kong. Apart from this, they often write professional IP legal watch articles which have been published or quoted by some journals and media. They are also regularly engaged in speaking about various topics involving Chinese trademark and patent protection and prosecution. So their expertise and effectiveness in developing IP protection legal strategies and solutions are highly noted in the IP community.

Among others, particularly, our IP attorneys collaboratively apply their rich experiences in the areas of

- Trademark Practice
- Patent Practice
- IP Litigation Practice
- General IP Counseling and Contracts Drafting

■ IP Litigation Practice

Applying and registering trademark and patent is the first step to secure the clients' business, however, the immediately followed protection and enforcement of the same is also equally essential to the final success for clients. Nowadays, IP related disputes are increasingly happening in China. It is often to get the registered trademarks and patents being copied and infringed or being accused by the competitors for IP infringement. So, sometimes, IP litigation cannot be avoided or the respective disputes cannot be otherwise resolved. Thanks for our housing both trademark and patent attorneys and attorneys-at-law who work extensively together in the same firm, when litigation is necessary, we can easily call upon our experienced litigators who always stand ready to represent our clients, either as plaintiffs or defendants, before various Chinese people's courts or arbitration tribunals. With assistance and considering the valuable opinions of our trademark and patent attorneys, our litigators can correctly counsel our clients on developing effective litigation strategies or exploring other alternative dispute resolution options which best meet their business goals in China. Similarly, our trademark and patent attorneys, with assistance and considering our litigators' legal opinions, can also identify the potential risks and areas of concern of our clients' IP in early stage and then help them to either avoid IP disputes or develop effective options and strategies to assert and enforce their IP or prevent their IP being attacked.

The specific services offered by our IP Litigation Practice include but not limit to

- Trademark dispute civil litigation and arbitration
- Patent dispute civil litigation and arbitration
